2 Size of School: For K-12, and other schools, this is the size of the entire school, not just the school year, or from the schools themselves middle school population.

as of 2006.

3 Average Class Size/Student-Teacher Ratio: For public schools, this number represents average class size. The figures come from www.insideschools.org and are from the year of the school visit, noted in each school's profile. For independent and religious schools, this number represents student-teacher ratio. The figures come from the website www.nces.ed.gov for the 2003-2004 school year, or from the schools themselves as of 2006.

4 8th Grade Exams: This is the percentage of students who placed in levels 3 and 4 on the 2004-2005 New York State 8th Grade Math and Reading exams. Students at levels 3 and 4 meet or exceed standards. Those at level 1 have serious deficiencies and those at level 2 do not have full mastery of the standards.

Public school information comes from school report cards posted on the Department of Education's Web site, schools.nyc.gov. Other school information comes from the National Center for Education Statistics, U.S. Department of Education, www.nces.ed.gov. NCES figures are from the 2003-2004 school year; more recent figures had not been released at press time.

*These schools do not administer the exams.
